Dear Vendor & Friends,

The Chinese Chamber of Commerce of Hawaii will be having a Luncheon and Fashion Show on Sunday, April 2nd, 2017 at the beautiful Hilton Hawaiian Village, Coral Ballroom. We invite you to participate in this fabulous event by becoming a Boutique Vendor.

This year's theme “East Meets West” will feature the fashions of two designers. Lillian Zhang comes to Honolulu for this special event from Shanghai, China. Lillian has experienced cooperative efforts with Giorgio Armani, and was invited to collaborate with Hugo Boss in designing and developing evening gowns worn by Hollywood stars on the Red Carpet for the Academy Awards presentation event.

Mae Young is Hawaii's own designer who knows East-West fusion and creatively incorporates our island looks into her garments. Educated at McKinley High School and with a degree in Fashion Design from the Honolulu Community College, she now has her own factory and showroom, located in Iwilei, Honolulu. Mae's innovative styles blend Chinese, Hawaiian and Western to accentuate the positives for each figure!

The Chamber is also pleased to welcome Ms. Nancy “Ka Shen” Kwan the beautiful actress who helped to break the racial barriers of Asian actors in major Hollywood film roles in the 1960's. Nancy will grace the runway as one of several celebrity models! Other celebrity models include television personality, Pamela Young, 2017 Miss Hawaii USA, Julie Kuo and 2016 Miss Hawaii, Chelsea Hardin.

If history is any indication, past Chinese Chamber Fashion Shows have garnered anywhere from 500 – 800 attendees. Please refer to the enclosed flyer with Luncheon and Fashion Show Vendor information.

We hope you can join us and be a part of this exciting event!
